

and Municipal boards and commissions, as it may find necessary or desirable. Whenever the Executive Committee of said Council is by any Act or Acts given any power or jurisdiction with respect to the disbursement of moneys appropriated by the State, the Comptroller of the Treasury and the State Treasurer shall constitute part of said Executive Committee, so that in all such cases the Executive Committee shall consist of the regular five members thereof, and the Comptroller and the Treasurer.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all officers, departments, boards, commissions, institutions and agencies of the State Government, or of any county or municipality in the State, shall cooperate with the Council, and shall render it such aid and assistance and give it such information as the Council may need or require.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all expenses and disbursements authorized by this Act shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury available therefor and not otherwise appropriated, or out of any moneys appropriated for such purpose, such payments to be made, from time to time, on the order of the Executive Committee of the Council, by and with the sanction and approval of the Governor, such orders to be directed to the Comptroller, who shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer for the amount thereof as in law provided.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved June 27th, 1917.
