

by them, and to cause any dog to be killed; for the promotion of morality, health, convenience and safety of the inhabitants of said town, and for the locating, opening, constructing, straightening, widening, extending, improving, grading, paving, repairing, closing or sewerage of streets, lanes and alleys of said town, whether done exclusively by said commissioners, or in conjunction with, or under the supervision of, the State Roads Commission. And to assess the cost and expenses thereof in whole or in part, a sum not to exceed $1.00 per lineal foot upon the owner or owners of the abutting property, whether the same be owned by an individual, firm or corporation, which said cost and expenses as assessed by said Commissioners of Federalsburg shall be due and payable within ten days after any work done under the provisions of this Act, shall have been completed along said abutting property. The said costs and expenses as assessed aforesaid shall be a lien upon the said abutting property and interest shall be chargeable on said assessment from the time same is due and payable, and all assessments that are not paid when due aforesaid, shall be collectible by an action at law.

Section 26A. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Federalsburg may, whenever they deem it necessary, borrow money on the credit of said town, by note or notes, in any amount they deem necessary, provided said indebtedness thus created, shall not exceed at any time the sum of seven thousand ($7,000.00) dollars. And the said Commissioners of Federalsburg be and are hereby empowered and directed to levy a tax on the assessable property of said town in addition to what they are now authorized to levy to pay said notes and interest thereon when they become due and payable.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved June 27th, 1917.
