

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said Police Justice shall have an office, at or near Admiral, in said Fourth Election District of said County, and shall attend at the same at least four hours each day of the week, Sundays excepted; and his office hours shall be posted on the outside front of his said office.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That said Police Justice of said Fourth Election District, shall have the same jurisdiction in civil actions as other Justices of the Peace in said County, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of a Justice of the Peace in the hearing of all charges and trial of all cases of criminal offenses, or for the recovery of any fine, penalty or forfeiture under the laws of the State, within the limits of the Fourth Election District of Anne Arundel County, and shall have cognizance of all criminal offenses committed in said District, and of all others which may be brought before him; and in the event of a warrant being sworn out before any other Justice of the Peace, for any offense committed in said District, it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace before whom such a warrant is sworn out, to make the same returnable before the said Police Justice for hearing and trial.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That Justices of the Peace of said Fourth Election District, other than the Police Justice shall be allowed the fees, now allowed by law, for issuing any warrant of arrest or summons for witnesses in criminal cases, but no other fees for the hearing or trial of any criminal case, or for the commitment of any person charged or tried shall be allowed such Justice of the Peace, and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County, the Constables of said Fourth Election District and any police officer, special or otherwise, to carry all persons arrested or apprehended before said Police Justice for commitment or trial.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Police Justice of the Fourth Election District of said county shall, at the first regular meeting of the County Commissioners, held in each month, make a report in writing, verified under oath, made before the clerk of said commissioners, or one of the commissioners, of all the criminal cases heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each