

CHAPTER 494.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 73 of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "The County Superintendents of Schools," as said Section was amended by Chapter 506 of the Acts of 1916, providing that the County Superintendent of Schools in each County, except Queen Anne's, employing less than one hundred and twenty-five teachers, shall act as attendance officers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 73 of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Public Education," sub-title "The County Superintendents of Schools," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

Section 73. The County Superintendent of Schools, acting under the rules and regulations of the County Board of Education, shall be responsible for the administration of the office of the County Superintendent of Schools. He shall nominate, for appointment by the County Board of Education, all the professional, clerical, statistical and stenographic assistants of the office; he shall recommend their removal for immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, insubordination or willful neglect of duty, and he shall see that all regular appointees of the County Board of Education devote their entire time to their duties. But the qualifications of all appointments, their tenure and compensations, except as may hereinafter be provided, shall be determined by the County Board of Education. The office of the County Superintendent of Schools shall, beginning with the school year 1916-1917 be provided as follows with professional, clerical, statistical and stenographic assistants holding office at the time of the enactment of this Section shall continue to serve to the end of the terms of which they were originally appointed, and until their successors qualify unless removed as herein provided; and provided further, that they shall be paid, beginning with the school year 1916-1917 on the basis of the salaries herein specified:

(1) In each county employing not less than one hundred (100) teachers there shall be appointed at least one primary grade supervisor, who shall receive such compensation as the County Board of Education shall direct; provided, that no person shall be eligible for appointment as a supervisor who does not hold from the Superintendent of Public Education a
