

Act is hereby repealed. And the said "The President and Commissioners of Chesapeake City" are hereby fully authorized to pass all necessary ordinances and to make appointments for the purposes of holding said election and ascertaining the true result.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10th, 1918.

---

CHAPTER 65.

AN ACT to repeal section ninety-four of Article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Chesapeake City," relating to bailiffs, and to enact a new section in lieu thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 94 of Article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Chesapeake City," relating to bailiffs, be and the same hereby is repealed, and that the following new section be enacted in lieu thereof, to be designated as said Section 94.

SECTION 94. The President and Commissioners may from time to time under such circumstances and conditions as they may by their ordinances direct, appoint such officers as they may deem necessary to carry into effect their ordinances; and as soon as practicable after their election and qualification shall annually appoint a town bailiff who shall continue in office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, but shall be subject to removal by said Board for neglect of duty, disobedience of its orders or malfeasance in office, and shall have within said town all the authority of a constable in making arrests and serving warrants, who shall preserve order in the said town, superintend all work being done for or by the town corporation within its limits, obey and perform all orders and ordinances of said Board and perform such other duties as said Board may prescribe, and as the entire compensation for all the services which he shall render under this Act and sub-title and the ordinances and orders of said Board, he shall receive annually a sum not exceeding Eight Hundred Dollars per annum.