

the General Assembly of Maryland, by the Act of 1898, Chapter 90, as amended by the Act of 1902, Chapter 60.

WHEREAS, Certain industrial schools are established and maintained as institutions to which boys and young men are committed as punishment for crime, to such an extent that the use of the word "Industrial" in connection with the word "School," to many persons, conveys the idea of an institution of that character; and

WHEREAS, The Buckingham Industrial School of Frederick County, Maryland, has never been an institution for the commitment of offenders, for punishment, but a corporation to receive in charge, instruct and teach, orphans and other boys apprenticed, bound and entrusted to it; so that the word industrial in its corporate name has become objectionable and misleading; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the name of the "Buckingham Industrial School of Frederick County, Maryland," incorporated by the General Assembly of Maryland, by Chapter 90 of the Acts passed at its session of 1898, as amended by Chapter 60 of the Acts passed at its session of 1902, be and the same is hereby changed to "Buckingham School of Frederick County, Maryland," which is hereby fixed and established as the corporate name of said corporation; which said corporation, by the said name of "Buckingham School of Frederick County, Maryland," shall have and hold all the property, enjoy all the rights and exercise all the powers and functions which were heretofore possessed by, or conferred upon, the said corporation under and by its former name of "Buckingham Industrial School of Frederick County, Maryland;" and shall hold, in like manner all property or estate which it shall acquire, by will or otherwise, under the said change of title hereby made.

Approved April 18th, 1918.
