

aforesaid, but in all other respects the Board of Canvassers for the several counties and for Baltimore City shall proceed as now required by law.

228. Whenever the condition which resulted in the issuing of the proclamation hereinbefore provided for terminate, it shall be the duty of the Governor, as soon as is convenient and proper, by proclamation, published as provided in Section 219 of this Act, to end the suspension of the election laws, and the provisions of this Act shall become inoperative until such time as a new proclamation of suspension is issued.

229. Whenever possible, the existing election laws and the provisions of this Act shall be construed together in such a way as to promote the purpose for which this Act is intended, to the end that the citizens of the State shall not be deprived of their right or opportunity to vote because of service, as herein provided, for their State or the United States. Whenever the provisions of this Act are enforced at any election the Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City shall be entitled to receive in addition to the compensation now paid to them the further sum of $200 each for every such election, and the Supervisors of Elections of the several counties in addition to the compensation now allowed them shall each be entitled to receive the additional sum of $25 each for every such election. The Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore City and of the several counties shall be allowed such further sum for expenses and clerical hire in the performance of the duties imposed upon them by this Act as may be reasonable and necessary. All said expenses shall be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and the County Commissioners of the several counties respectively in precisely the same way as compensation and similar election expenses are now provided to be paid by law.

230. Any person who shall wilfully sign any false certificate or application, and any person who shall in any way wilfully do any act contrary to the terms and provisions of this Act with intent to cast an illegal vote or to aid another in so doing, and any person who shall in any way wilfully violate any of the provisions of this Act, and any person who shall fail or refuse to perform any duty imposed upon him by the provisions of this Act, and any person who shall apply for a ballot under any other name than his own, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $1,000 or be sentenced to the penitentiary for not more than two years,
