WHEN SPEED IS TO BE REDUCED.

150. Upon approaching any person walking in the traveled portion of any public highway or a horse or any animal being led, ridden or driven thereon, or a crossing of intersecting public highways, or a bridge, or a sharp turn, or a curve, or a steep descent, and also in passing such person or such horse or other animal, and in traversing such crossing, bridge, turn, curve or descent, the person operating a motor vehicle or motorcycle shall have the same under control and shall reduce its speed to a reasonable and proper rate. If such horse or other animal being so led, ridden or driven shall appear to be frightened, or if the person in charge thereof shall signal so to do by raising his or her hand vertically, the person operating such motor vehicle or motorcycle shall bring the same to a stop, and if traveling in the opposite direction shall remain stationary so long as may be reasonable to allow such horse or other animal to pass, or if traveling in the same direction, shall use reasonable caution in thereafter passing such horse or animal, but no person shall give such a signal to stop unless necessary. Except where safety zones are provided the driver or operator of every vehicle shall bring the same to a full stop not less than five feet from the rear of any street car headed in the same direction which has stopped for the purpose of taking on and discharging passengers, and remain standing until such car has taken on or discharged its passengers. Any person violating any requirement of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject, upon conviction, to a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the first offense. The provisions of this section shall apply to the operator and to the owner who causes his motor vehicle to be operated in violation of this section.
