

for the accused to have such complaint heard and determined in Baltimore City, provided that any person so accused shall have the right before such trial to order the case removed for trial before a justice of the peace of the county in which the alleged offense occurred. The jurisdiction, powers and duties heretofore vested in and required of other justices of the peace in Baltimore City under Section 158 of this sub-title shall hereafter be exclusively vested in and required of the Justice of the Peace of the Traffic Court. Said Justice shall keep his office in the station-house of the Central Police District of Baltimore City, and shall attend at such station-house at such hours and times as may be determined upon by the Board of Police Commissioners and the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. Said Justice shall during his sittings at the Central Police Station transact no other business except the business required of him by the provisions of this sub-title. The said Justice of the Peace of the Traffic Court (and any justice who may be designated to sit in his absence) shall have the power and authority to enforce obedience to his orders and judgments by attachment and to inflict summary punishment for contempt of court by a fine not exceeding in any one case the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00); all of which fines shall be paid to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles in the same manner as other fines; and imprisonment for default in payment of such fines shall be imposed to the same extent as in the case of other fines; provided, however, that the power aforesaid to punish for contempt shall not be construed to extend to any cases arising in the Court of said Justice of the Peace of the Traffic Court except the cases specifically set forth and provided for in Section 4 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland as within the power of the several courts of this State to inflict summary punishments for contempt of court.

The said Justice of the Peace of the Traffic Court, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, in the penalty of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) con-
