

SEC. 7. The license shall be kept conspicuously posted in the place of business of the licensee.

SEC. 8. No person, co-partnership, or corporation so licensed shall make any loan or transact any business provided for by this Act, under any other name, or at any other place of business, than that named in the license. Not more than one place of business, shall be maintained under the same license, but the Bank Commissioner may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon the payment of an additional license fee and the filing of an additional bond for each license.

SEC. 9. Whenever the licensee shall change his place of business, he shall at once give written notice thereof to the Bank Commissioner, who shall attach to the license his consent in writing to such change.

SEC. 10. The Bank Commissioner for the purpose of discovering violations of this Act, may either personally, or by any person designated by him, at any time and as often as he may desire, investigate the loans and business of every licensee and of every person, co-partnership, and corporation by whom or for which any such loan shall be made, whether such person, co-partnership, or corporation shall act, or claim to act as principal, agent, or broker, or under, or without the authority of this Act; and for that purpose he shall have free access to the books, papers, records, safes and vaults of all such persons, co-partnerships and corporations; he shall also have authority to examine, under oath, all persons, whomsoever, whose testimony he may require, relative to such loans, or business.

SEC. 11. The licensee shall keep such books and records as in the opinion of the Bank Commissioner will enable the Bank Commissioner to determine whether the provisions of this Act are being observed. Every such licensee shall preserve the records of final entry used in such business, including cards used in the card system, if any, for a period of at least two years after the making of any loan recorded therein.

SEC. 12. All license fees received under this Act are hereby appropriated for the uses and purposes thereof and the expenses which may be incurred in relation to the supervisions of licensees and enforcement of this Act; any surplus remaining at the end of the fiscal year shall be paid into the State Treasury, with a statement of receipts and disbursements.
