

Section 432. Each applicant desiring to hold races on the day or days awarded by the commission shall, before the issuance of any license and on or before the first day of May following the allotment of such days, pay to the said commission a license fee as follows: Seventy-five dollars for each day of any meeting for the conduct of races, up to five days, and three thousand dollars for each additional day thereof; provided, however, that each applicant desiring to hold races on a mile track, or any track over one-half mile, shall pay to said Commission a license fee of three thousand dollars for each and every day such applicant shall conduct or hold races, and the provision above for seventy-five dollars for the first five days shall not apply to any applicant desiring to hold races on a mile track, or on any track over one-half mile; and provided further, that before said Racing Commission grants any dates whatever to any applicant for holding any race meeting in Baltimore County, the license fees aforesaid shall be paid in full in cash or certified check to said Racing Commission, and in the event that said racing dates are not granted as applied for, a refund shall be made by said Racing Commission to said applicant, pro rata for such dates not granted. Any violation of the above provisions by said Racing Commission shall subject each member thereof, upon conviction, to a fine of not less than one thousand dollars and imprisonment in the Baltimore County Jail for a period of not less than three months.

Section 435. The said Racing Commission shall have full power to prescribe rules, regulations and conditions under which all horse races shall be conducted in Baltimore County, and may make rules governing, restricting or regulating betting on such races, and a violation of any of such rules, regulations or conditions with or without the consent of the licensee shall be sufficient cause for the commission to revoke forthwith the license under which such races are conducted and said commission may thereafter refuse any license to the corporation or association whose license has been so revoked.

Every person aiding or abetting in the conduct of any meeting in Baltimore County at which the racing of horses shall be permitted for any stake, purse or reward, except in accordance with a license duly issued and unrevoked by the Baltimore County Racing Commission shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 and not more than $2000 for each day of such unauthorized meeting or by imprisonment for not ex-
