

Board shall, upon examination, be of the opinion that both the interests of the State and the interests of any prisoner sentenced under the laws of Maryland would be best subserved by a conditional pardon, it shall be the duty of said Board to lay before the Governor for his consideration those facts and circumstances which induced their conclusion in that respect. It shall be the duty of said Board to investigate and to collect all information that may aid it in determining the advisability of recommending to the Governor the conditional pardon of all persons sentenced for one year or more to the Maryland Penitentiary to the Maryland House of Correction upon the expiration of one-third of the term for which each of such persons has been sentenced. And such investigation shall be made by the said Board of its own initiative without the necessity of any application by or in behalf of any of such persons. It shall be the duty of the Governor to act upon the same within sixty days after the receipt of any recommendations from the Advisory Board of Parole.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on and after June 1, 1918.

Approved April 10th, 1918.

CHAPTER 217.
