

enforcing all such rules and regulations; and in addition to the other methods of enforcing compliance with such rules and regulations, said County Commissioners shall have the right to apply to the Courts of Equity of the State for an injunction to enforce compliance therewith, in which case it shall not be necessary to make other jurisdictional averment than the threatened breach of such rules or regulations; and said courts shall have jurisdiction to grant such injunctions on such allegations being made. A certified copy of any such rules and regulations shall be deemed proper evidence of the same in any of the Courts of this State. The said County Commissioners, in connection with the performance of their duties under this Act, shall have power to require any party or corporation with whom a contract is made to do work, or furnish supplies or materials, to give bond, with surety to be approved by said Commissioners, for the faithful performance of such contract, and to require a similar bond of any of the agents or employees appointed by said Commissioners under the authority of this Article.

177 I. The County Commissioners of Montgomery County may, after the passage of this Act, appoint, if in their judgment it is advisable, a man of good judgment and having the necessary technical qualifications and experience in road building to perform the duties of the office as Montgomery County Road Superintendent; determine the amount of the bond which he shall give; fix his salary at not exceeding eighteen hundred dollars ($1800.) per annum, payable monthly, and may remove said County Road Superintendent, upon written charges after an opportunity to be heard not less than five days after the service of such charges, when in their judgment, it is best for the public interests; and upon the death, resignation, vacancy or removal of said superintendent may appoint a successor with the same rights and obligations. The term of office of said Road Superintendent shall be for two years unless removed as herein provided. Said Road Superintendent shall incur no expenses and receive no additional allowance for services without authority from the County Commissioners first had and obtained; should any such additional allowance be made by the County Commissioners the same shall be charged against the general bridge fund, and when such additional allowance is for expenses incurred for any special road or bridge such expenses shall be charged against such road or bridge fund. The Road Superintendent for Montgomery
