

legal open season for hunting or killing the same, that it shall be also unlawful for any person or persons, firm, partnership or corporation to re-sell any part of the body or bodies of the aforesaid birds, quail (partridge) or rabbit; provided, however, that nothing herein shall apply or be construed to prevent any person or persons, firm, partnership or corporation from having in possession by purchase or otherwise any live bird of any kinds above mentioned, or live rabbit, for the purpose of preservation and propagation; and nothing herein shall prevent the person who shall first kill or catch any of said quail (partridge) or rabbit from selling the same if sold not to be re-sold.

SEC. 34 A-3. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act shall upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, having criminal jurisdiction in said county, or in the Circuit Court for said County, be fined the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) for each and every bird, quail (partridge) or rabbit unlawfully killed, hunted for, re-sold or offered for re-sale hereinbefore mentioned, and to stand committed to the county jail until such fine and costs of prosecution are paid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after its passage as provided by the constitution of Maryland, and that all Acts General or Local inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 10th, 1918.

CHAPTER 279.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 134 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Fraud—Boarding House, Hotel and Livery Stable Keepers," so that the same may include within its scope Hospitals and Sanitariums.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 134 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Fraud—Boarding House, Hotel and Livery Stable Keepers," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows: