

SEC. 17. (Liability of Limited Partner to Partnership.)

- (1) A limited partner is liable to the partnership
 - (a) For the difference between his contribution as actually made and that stated in the certificate as having been made, and
 - (b) For any unpaid contribution which he agreed in the certificate to make in the future at the time and on the conditions stated in the certificate.

(2) A limited partner holds as trustee for the partnership

- (a) Specific property stated in the certificate as contributed by him, but which was not contributed or which has been wrongfully returned; and

- (b) Money or other property wrongfully paid or conveyed to him on account of his contribution.

- (3) The liabilities of a limited partner as set forth in this section can be waived or compromised only by the consent of all members; but a waiver or compromise shall not affect the right of a creditor of a partnership, who extended credit or whose claim arose after the filing and before a cancellation or amendment of the certificate, to enforce such liabilities.

- (4) When a contributor has rightfully received the return in whole or in part of the capital of his contribution, he is nevertheless liable to the partnership for any sum, not in excess of such return with interest, necessary to discharge its liabilities to all creditors who extended credit or whose claims arose before such return.

SEC. 18. (Nature of Limited Partner's Interest in Partnership.) A limited partner's interest in the partnership is personal property.

SEC. 19. (Assignment of Limited Partner's Interest.)

- (1) A limited partner's interest is assignable.

- (2) A substituted limited partner is a person admitted to all the rights of a limited partner who has died or has assigned his interest in a partnership.

- (3) An assignee, who does not become a substituted limited partner, has no right to require any information or account of the partnership transactions or to inspect the partnership books; he is only entitled to receive the share of the profits or other compensation by way of income or the return of his contribution, to which his assignor would otherwise be entitled.

- (4) An assignee shall have the right to become a substituted limited partner, if all the members (except the assignor) con-
