CHAPTER 312.

AN ACT to appoint an unpaid commission of twelve citizens as follows: One from the First Congressional District, two from the Second Congressional District, three from the Third Congressional District, three from the Fourth Congressional District, one from the Fifth Congressional District and two from the Sixth Congressional District, to take under advisement and formulate plans for the establishment of a Maryland State Cemetery, accessible to all sections of the State and beyond all danger of encroachment from any City, and make a report to the next Session of the General Assembly of Maryland with a bill in the form of an Act which will provide for perpetual care, that will keep sacred, intact, and beautiful, so long as the State itself exists, a cemetery in which the original purchasers of plots cannot be exhumed and thrust aside by subsequent heirs to make room for later generations, and to provide that it shall also be a cemetery for persons of moderate circumstances to provide resting places for themselves and their loved ones with no chance that their graves would ever or could ever be desecrated so long as the commonwealth existed.

WHEREAS, It is a matter of common knowledge that there is a widespread and lamentable neglect of burial places in this State. It matters not whether the Maryland cemeteries be controlled by corporations as means of making money, or whether well-intentioned cooperative organizations institute them, or whether
