

hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

Section 213. The Board of Commissioners shall be composed of three, one to be elected each year for a term of three years, no commissioner to be eligible for re-election until after a period of twelve months, of whom a majority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and any of them may meet and enforce by-laws upon delinquent members.

Section 216. An annual election for commissioners shall be held the first Saturday in June, in each year, between the hours of eleven and one, at which any two of the commissioners shall be judges; each candidate shall file a written notice of his candidacy with the clerk at least ten days prior to the election. The clerk shall give notice thereof in one or more of the most public places in said town at least one week before, and the clerk shall attend and keep record of the election under the direction of the judges, and notify those elected of their election. At the first election held after the Act goes into effect, three commissioners shall be elected, and the one receiving the highest vote shall serve for three years, the next for two years, and the next for one year. In case of a tie between two, it shall be decided by lot.

Section 221. The clerk shall keep a full minute of all the proceedings of said commissioners in a well-bound book to be provided by them for that purpose, which shall always be open to inspection by any person interested. The clerk shall also publish an itemized report of the receipts and expenditures of the commissioners, including bills payable, at least two weeks prior to the end of the fiscal year.

Section 227. Be it enacted, They may levy tax upon all the taxable property within the Town for all corporate purposes, but the sum so levied shall in no case exceed the sum of fifty cents in every hundred dollars of the assessable property within the limits of said Town of Trappe as may be necessary, in their judgment, for the purposes of defraying the expenses of said Town, and they are also authorized to borrow on the faith and credit of said Town any sum of money, not exceeding two thousand dollars, which they may deem necessary for defraying the necessary expenses of said Town, and including therein any improvements to the streets of said Town or other purposes which they may consider for the benefit and advantage of the inhabitants of said Town.
