

said original name, and ratifying such deeds or conveyances as may have been so made by incorrect names, and having its corporate powers explicitly declared; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the new Parish set off in 1809 by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland, at its session of that year, from St. George's Parish in Harford County, for the convenience of the members of said Church residing in the then town of Havre de Grace, shall be known as "Havre de Grace Parish," and the Vestry organized in said new Parish under the Vestry Act of 1798, Chapter 24, and thereby made a body corporate and its successors in said Parish, shall be known as the "Vestry of Havre de Grace Parish," as fully and completely as though said names had been given by an Act of the General Assembly enacted for that purpose.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That said Vestry by the original name aforesaid, shall have all and every power and authority conferred by the said Vestry Act upon each Vestry duly organized thereunder, and may hold such land or other property as is authorized by Section 340 of Article 23 of the Annotated Code of this State.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all land and other property conveyed to the said Vestry, by whatsoever name, for the benefit of said Church or Parish, shall be held by said Vestry for the use of said Church and Parish as fully and completely as if the said Vestry had been correctly named in the deed or other conveyance by which it was attempted to convey the same, and all deeds or other conveyances made by said Vestry, by whatsoever name or names, shall be as good and effective to convey the land or other property therein described as if the said Vestry had been correctly named therein.

Approved April 2nd, 1918.
