

Act of the General Assembly of Maryland passed at its January Session, 1858, Chapter 208, which may not have been acknowledged according to the laws existing at the time of said acknowledgment, or which may not have been acknowledged before a proper officer, or when the certificate or acknowledgment is not in the prescribed form, or when the official character of the officer taking the acknowledgment is not set out in the body of the certificate, or has not been certified to as required by law, or where the conveyance has not been witnessed to or sealed as required by law, shall be and the same are hereby made valid, to all intents and purposes, as if the conveyances have been acknowledged, certified to, witnessed and sealed according to law; providing the said deeds, mortgages, bonds of conveyances, bills of sale and other conveyances are in other respects in conformity with the laws; provided further, that nothing in this section shall affect the interest of bona fide purchasers or creditors, without notice, who may have become so previous to the passage of this Act.

SEC. 1A. And be it further enacted, That any assignment of any mortgage, which assignment has been heretofore executed and recorded, but which has not been sealed and in which no mention of any seal has been made or in which either of such defects exist, or any mortgage or assignment of mortgage defectively sworn to or not sworn to at all, shall be and they are hereby made valid to all intents and purposes, as if said mortgage or assignment of mortgage had been in such matters in full conformity with the law in force at the time of such execution. Provided, that any such mortgage or assignment of mortgage is in other respects legal and valid; and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall affect the rights of any bona fide purchaser or creditor without notice, who becomes so prior to the passage of this Act.

Approved April 10th, 1918.

CHAPTER 397.
