

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars for each offense, such fine to be paid to the board or other public authorities in control of the road upon which such offense was committed and to be used for road maintenance; provided, however, that this section shall only apply to roads which have been improved with modern gravel, shell, macadam or metal roadbed, and shall not apply to dirt roads.

Approved April 10th, 1918.

CHAPTER 481.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 56 of Article 3, of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, known as the Offutt's Revised Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County of 1915, so as to provide for the appointment of building inspectors for each election district of Baltimore County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That Section 56 of Article 3 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland known as Offutt's Revised Code of Baltimore County, known as the Revised Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County of 1915, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with the amendments so as to read as follows, to wit:

Section 56. That the assessor of new and missed property in each of the Election Districts of Baltimore County be and he is hereby constituted the Inspector of Buildings for said respective districts, and as such shall have all the powers and duties hereinafter prescribed; provided, that in case at any time hereafter more than one assessor of new and missed property shall be appointed for any one of said respective districts, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall, at the time of making such appointment, designate which of said appointees is to serve as inspector of buildings aforesaid, and if there be no person appointed and qualified as assessor of new and missed property for any of said election districts the said County Commissioners shall appoint some capable and upright citizen of Baltimore County as inspector of buildings for such district, and such person shall possess the same qualifications and qualify in the same manner as required of persons appointed to the office of assessor of new and missed property in