

Section 13. That they shall annually in the month of June appoint a bailiff and such other police officers as they may deem necessary for the safety of said town, who upon entering upon the duties of their office, shall make oath before the Mayor that they will faithfully perform all duties required of them as officers according to the best of their skill, judgment and without favor, affection or prejudice, and said bailiff and police officers shall give such bond and security for the faithful performance of all duties imposed upon them as bailiff or police officers in such sum as the Mayor and Councilmen may designate and with such security as may be acceptable to the Mayor and Councilmen; and the said bailiff and police officers may be removed at any time by said Mayor and Councilmen for any malfeasance, non-feasance or misfeasance of their respective office. The qualification for such bailiff or police officers shall be such as may be determined by said Mayor and Councilmen.

Section 15. That the Mayor and Councilmen of Lonaconing shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary for the good government of the town; to prevent, remove and abate all nuisances, or obstructions in or upon the streets, highways, lanes or alleys, drains or water courses, in or upon any lot or lots adjacent thereto; to prohibit or license the keeping of hogs or hog pens or the rendering in open kettles of tallow, or the running about the streets of animals and to punish therefor; to remove or cause to be removed houses or other structures that may be dangerous to persons passing along and over any of the highways of the town; to make reasonable regulations in regard to buildings to be erected in said town and to grant building permits for the same; to make and establish grades upon the streets and highways of the town; to cause sidewalks, kerbs and gutters along the public streets and highways of said town to be laid, graded, paved, repaired or improved at the cost and expense of the abutting property or the owner thereof; to cause the water courses, drains or sewers of the town to be paved, kept in repair and cleaned; to establish markets and regulate the hours and limits thereof, and the mode of dealing in relation thereto; to grant licenses for marketable commodities; to control and protect public grounds and property of the town; to establish and regulate a station house or lock-up for temporary confinement of violators of the law and ordinances of the town; to suppress vagrancy; to prohibit or restrain the keeping of bawdy-houses or houses of ill-fame within the limits of the town, and to provide for the punish-
