

Commissioner's office, shall become indebted to any banking institution, or shall engage or be interested in the sale of securities or in the negotiation of loans for others, to or with any banking institution under penalty of forfeiture of his office or employment.

16. The examination of banking institutions by the Bank Commissioner shall be paid for by such institutions at the following rate for the annual examination: When the aggregate assets of the institution are fifty thousand dollars, or less, twenty dollars. When more than fifty thousand, but less than two hundred thousand, forty dollars. When more than two hundred thousand, but less than five hundred thousand, fifty dollars. When more than five hundred thousand, but less than one million, sixty dollars. When more than one million, but less than three million, seventy-five dollars. When more than three million, but less than ten million, one hundred dollars. When more than ten million, but less than fifteen million, one hundred and fifty dollars. When more than fifteen million, but less than twenty-five million, two hundred dollars. When more than twenty-five million, but less than forty million, two hundred and twenty-five dollars. When more than forty million, three hundred dollars. The Bank Commissioner shall collect the amounts named from the institution examined and pay the same to the State Treasurer, and he shall draw, on proper orders, from the State Treasury, the amounts necessary for the salaries and other expenses of his office.

17. The amount of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury from any funds available toward the salaries and expenses, including traveling expenses, of the Bank Commissioner's office, if the amounts collected from the several banking institutions should not be sufficient for the said salaries and expenses.

18. Whenever any certified copy or copies of any records or papers filed in the office of the Bank Commissioner shall be lawfully required to be furnished by him, the Bank Commissioner shall be entitled to a fee of ten cents for each folio for making such copy or copies, and fifty cents for each certificate. All such fees are to be paid by the Bank Commissioner into the State Treasury.

19. The Bank Commissioner shall make an annual report to the Governor, covering the operations of his office, and suggesting such amendments to this Act as in his judgment may be desirable, on the tenth day of February in every year.

Banks.

20. Any number of persons, not less than five, citizens of