

and alleys; for the establishment of building lines and building regulations; for prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons; for prohibiting the discharge of firearms, firecrackers, torpedoes and other explosives; for preventing swine, cattle, fowls, dogs or other animals from running at large on the streets; for granting franchises, licenses, taxing and regulating occupations and professions and all amusements and public exhibitions; for the purpose of raising revenue to meet the current expenses of the town, as well as for the purpose of the proper protection of the health, good order and peace of the town; for the suppression of gambling, vice and immorality; for the apprehending and punishing of all tramps and vagrants; it may pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions, and to give full force and effect to the powers and authority conferred on said corporation, and may enforce such ordinance by reasonable fines and penalties; it may recover said fines or penalties by an action of debt, and in addition thereto may imprison the offender until the fine be paid, not exceeding thirty days' imprisonment, to be in the town lockup, if one be provided, or in the county jail, and the sheriff of Prince George's county shall receive and confine any person so committed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall have power to levy on or before the thirtieth day of June for each year, the tax year commencing with the first day of July, taxes at such rates as they may find necessary to meet anticipated expenses for the coming fiscal year, not to exceed twenty cents of the hundred dollars based on the State and county assessment for all purposes, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person, company or corporation against whom they may be levied, and the taxes for each year shall be due and payable on the first day of July next succeeding the levy thereof, and will be in arrears and subject to legal interest from and after that date.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That whenever the Mayor and Common Council shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made an alphabetical list of the persons charged therewith, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from such persons, and a warrant to the treasurer to collect the same.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the treasurer shall, within ten days after the receipt of such list and warrant, render to such person named therein an account or tax bill, showing the amount due by him, if he be a resident of the town, and if he be a non-resident, and cannot be conveniently served with said