

in a book to be provided for that purpose by the Board of Road Directors a full, complete and accurate and easily understood account of all money expended by him in each of the several election districts of his road district, which account must specify the name of the person to whom money was paid, the date, the purpose for which it was paid and the amount thereof. And this book shall be submitted to the inspection of any taxpayer of the road district whenever such inspection is demanded, and any road director who shall fail to enter in said book any sum of money expended by him, or shall make any fraudulent or deceptive entry therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined a sum of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than three hundred dollars, and the Governor shall immediately remove him from the office of road director and appoint his successor.

SEC. 283. The terms of said Board of Road Directors shall begin on the first day of March succeeding their appointment or election, and within ten days thereafter the members of the said board shall qualify by taking an oath, to be administered by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, that they will faithfully execute the duties of their office; but before entering upon the duties of their office: but before entering upon the duties of their office they shall give a bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of $2,000 each, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties and the proper expenditure of all moneys coming into their hands, and all moneys recorded as a result of any suit upon said bond shall be paid to the Board of Road Directors by the Clerk of the Circuit Court: said bonds to be approved by the Clerk of the Circuit Court and filed with him. At their first meeting they shall elect one of their members as president, to serve during their pleasure. They shall thereafter meet for the transaction of business at least once a month, on the first Thursday of each month, in Upper Marlboro, and as often thereafter as may be found necessary. The County Commissioners are hereby directed, as soon as the members of said board shall qualify, to assign to said board a suitable room, or rooms, in the Court-house of said county for the exclusive use of said board. It shall not be lawful for any road director, nor for the engineer, provided for by this Act, to use any of the powers conferred upon him by this Act, directly or indirectly, in the interest of any candidate or candidates in any primary or general election hereafter to be held in Prince George's county; and it shall be the duty of the Governor immediately upon the receipt of written charges of the violation of any provision of this section against any road director, to provide a hearing, and if the charges are sustained, the Governor shall at once remove the
