

as may be realized each year from the property within the limits of their respective towns.

SEC. 286. All moneys belonging to said Board of Road Directors shall be deposited in one or more banks of said county to the credit of said board, and shall be paid out only upon checks signed by the president of said board and countersigned by the Road Engineer; except that for such sums as shall be paid for labor or provender, checks may be signed by the directors of the respective districts, countersigned by the Engineer, and the statement upon the checks that such checks are for labor or provender, shall be sufficient warrant for their payment when so signed. The total sum received for the use of the roads and bridges from any source, after payment into the redemption fund, as hereinafter provided for, shall be divided into four equal parts, and one part shall be known as the general fund, out of which the salaries of the members of the board, the salary of the Engineer and all rebates payable to incorporated towns shall be paid, and the residue thereof shall be subject to the disposition of a majority of said board for road or bridge uses, and such residue shall each year be held as an emergency fund, and no part thereof shall be expended until 95 per cent. of the funds allotted to each district shall have been expended; the remaining three parts shall be equally divided among the four road districts herein created for use upon the roads and bridges of the respective districts, and the sum so allotted to each road district shall be divided, among the election districts of the respective road districts, according to their road mileage; and the Engineer shall keep a separate itemized account of all expenditures, seeing to it that no road district exceeds its allotment. Should the general fund be insufficient to pay the charges against it, the deficiency shall be made up by deducting a sufficient amount, pro rata, from the sum allowed each road district hereunder. A detailed account of all receipts and expenditures of said board shall be published once a year in the month of March, in at least two newspapers published in said county.

SEC. 287. That for the purpose set forth in Section 288 of this Act the County Commissioners of Prince George's County are hereby authorized and directed to borrow on the faith and credit of Prince George's county, an amount not exceeding the sum of sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000), and to issue coupon bonds therefor in the sum of one hundred dollars, or any multiple thereof, to be signed by the president of said County Commissioners and the Clerk thereof, with the seal of said County Commissioners attached, and to be registered by the said Clerk in a separate book kept for that purpose: said bonds shall bear