

lected in the same manner as the other taxes now authorized to be levied, assessed and collected by the Town Commissioners of Centreville. The proceeds of said special tax shall be kept separate from the other funds of said corporation and shall be used for the payment of the interest on said bonds and the payment of said bonds, and for no other purpose whatsoever. In determining the amount of the special tax hereby authorized to be levied and collected the Town Commissioners of Centreville shall make allowance for the amount applicable to the payment of said interest and said bonds from the "Sewer Rent Funds," but no allowance shall be made for any amount not actually in bank or in hand at the time of said levy from said "Sewer Rent Funds."

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That a special election shall be held in the town of Centreville on such day as shall be determined by the Town Commissioners of Centreville; provided, said special election be held not later than six months from the time this Act shall take effect. At said special election a vote shall be taken by the legal and qualified voters of said town, as now determined, whether or not the bond issue herein provided for shall be made, which said special election shall be held under the provisions of law governing elections in said town; provided, however, that notice of said special election be printed in two successive editions or issues of the two newspapers now published in said town, the first edition or issue of each paper containing said notice of said special election to issue or be published at least twenty days prior to the date of said election. The printed notice shall state clearly the object and purpose of said special election, and for the purpose of taking the vote at said election there shall be printed on the ballot to be used at said election in one column the words, "For the Bond Issue," and in another column the words, "Against the Bond Issue," and if a majority of the legally qualified voters shall vote in favor of said bond issue, the Town Commissioners of Centreville shall issue said bonds and provide for the installation of said sewerage system, but if a majority of the legally qualified voters of the said town shall vote against the issue of said bonds, then this Act shall be null and void. The judge of said election shall at the close of the polls on said election day count up the votes and make a certificate of the same in the usual form and forward said certificate to the treasurer of the said corporation, who shall at once record said certificate, together with a copy of the notice of said election, in the minute record book of said corporation.
