CHAPTER 626.

AN ACT to provide for the improving and repairing the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares in the town of Oxford, and to require the services of certain citizens of said town to assist in such improvement and repairing of said streets.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the year for improving and repairing the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares of said town under this Act shall be reckoned from the first day of June, inclusive, in one year to the first day of June, inclusive, in the next year.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every able-bodied male person between the age of twenty-one and sixty years who has resided in said town five months shall be bound to work on said streets, lanes and thoroughfares for two days in every year, as the year is herein defined, and if any person who is liable to render such services fails to attend as directed on notice from the bailiff of said town of Oxford, or who shall appear and fail or refuse to work and render proper service as by the person or persons supervising the work he is required and instructed to do shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of said county or in the Circuit Court for Talbot County shall be fined two dollars, and shall be adjudged to pay said fine and costs and stand committed till fine and costs are paid.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That at or about the first day of April in each year, beginning with the year 1910, the town clerk, assisted by the Commissioners of Oxford and the town bailiff, shall make out a list of all persons who on the first day of next June will be liable to render service, and as soon as may reasonably be convenient this list shall be delivered to the town bailiff, and he shall call on each person named therein to pay the sum of one dollar. Each person who pays the same shall receive a receipt exempting him from service for the current year, beginning on the first day of June following; within five days before the first day of June, the town bailiff shall make a list of all the persons who have not paid the exemption
