

secretary and treasurer thereof; and the said treasurer shall keep in a book to be provided for this purpose a full registry of the bonds sold, the serial numbers of the bonds, the names of the purchasers, the amounts realized on sale, and the transfers or assignments thereof, and no moneys realized from the sale of said bonds shall be paid for any other purpose than the permanent improvement of the streets herein provided for.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the funds realized from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited by the Mayor and Council of Easton in the name and to the credit of the Easton Street Improvement Fund in some bank, and shall be paid out and applied by orders drawn upon the said fund, signed by the President of the Street Commission, and no money shall be withdrawn from the deposit of the funds herein provided for, except on checks signed by the President of the Street Commission and countersigned by the secretary and treasurer thereof, and no funds shall be withdrawn therefrom for any purpose whatever, except the bill for same be previously approved by at least two members of the Commission, exclusive of the President.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the bonds so to be issued shall be designated as "Easton Street Improvement Bonds."

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That a commission of four of the legal voters and freeholders of the town, composed of William E. Shannahan, Ulysses C. Ross, Robert L. Kemp and Harry Roberts, who, together with the Mayor of Easton, shall constitute "The Easton Street Improvement Commission," to serve without pay, which Commission shall have full charge of the building and construction of the said streets and of all work done under authority of the provisions of this Act, with power and authority to advertise for bids, purchase materials, let contracts and appoint such other assistants as may be required and to do all other things which may be deemed necessary to properly perform the duties for which they are hereby appointed; provided, that no materials shall be furnished directly or indirectly, or any profit or commission be received by any member of said Commission, or by any firm or corporation with which any member of the Commission is connected. Each member of the Commission shall give bond, with approved corporate security, in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for the faithful compliance with the provisions of this Act, the cost of which shall be paid out of the Easton Street Improvement Funds. Each Commissioner shall take the oath of office prescribed in the Charter of Easton for all other officials of the town of Easton.
