

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That before the said streets, as herein provided, shall be built or constructed, it shall be the duty of the Mayor and Council of Easton to complete the curbs and gutters on both sides of said streets to be improved, and sufficient funds will be appropriated out of the Easton Street Improvement Fund to defray the town's proportion of the expenses incident thereto.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the Commission so appointed shall within thirty days after the passage of this Act organize by electing one of their number President, and by electing a secretary and treasurer, who shall be a taxpayer and qualified voter of the town of Easton, and who shall not be a member of this Commission. The salary of the secretary and treasurer, which shall be fixed by the Commission, shall not exceed the sum of fifty dollars ($50) per month. He, the said treasurer, shall give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the Mayor and Council shall require and at the expiration of his term of office shall turn over all moneys, books and papers belonging to his office to the Mayor and Council of Easton. All expenses incurred in connection with the construction of the said streets, including curb and gutter work, mentioned in Section nine (9) of this Act; materials, labor, stationery, office expenses and the cost of bonds, shall be paid out of the "Easton Street Improvement Fund," and no part of this fund shall be used for any other purpose than to pay the costs incident to the carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That whenever competitive bids, including bids for bonds, materials or labor are invited by the Mayor and Council of Easton or the said Commission, by public advertisement, and bids thus invited where the aggregate cost equals or exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), the successful bidder or bidders shall within five days after the contract is awarded to him, them or it, make and file with the town clerk an affidavit or affidavits to be taken before such officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of this State or such other State, District or Territory, that he, they or it have not conspired or colluded with any bidder or bidders at said bidding for the purpose of suppressing or limiting competition, or creating a deceptive show of competition at said bidding, or conspired or colluded with any official of the town of Easton or with any Commissioner or employee of the same, and in case said affidavit or affidavits are not made and filed within the said period of five days, as aforesaid, the Commission or Mayor and Council may, at their option, rescind said contract. Any person or agent of any corporation falsely or wilfully
