

the Council, shall annually on or before the first Monday in June appoint a competent person, a resident and legal voter in said town, to be Chief of Police, who shall hold his office until the first Monday in June following his appointment and until the qualification of his successor, unless sooner removed, as authorized by law. The Chief of Police shall see that all ordinances are enforced, and he, together with such deputies or other policemen as may be appointed, shall have power to arrest any person or persons for the violation of town ordinances wherein an arrest for violation is provided, and, in addition thereto, they shall perform such other duties as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the laws relating to said town and by the ordinances thereof, and shall have all and the same powers and functions that Constables of Talbot County now have or may hereafter possess as conservators of the peace. He shall give bond to the State of Maryland, executed by a surety company, to be approved by the Mayor, in a sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as Chief of Police, and the premium of said bond, if any thereby, shall be paid out of the town treasury. The Chief of Police shall report at all regular meetings of the Council for the purpose of furnishing any desired information concerning any of the affairs of the town or upon matters which may be under consideration by the Mayor and Council.

SEC. 71. All ordinances or resolutions duly passed by the Council, when approved by the Mayor, shall become ordinances or resolutions of the Mayor and Council of Easton. If the Mayor shall not approve of any ordinances or resolutions so passed by the Council, he shall return the same with his objections in writing to the Council at its next meeting, or not later than ten days after such delivery of said ordinance or resolution to him, which objections, upon receipt of the same by the Council, shall be forthwith read to the Council and entered at large upon its journal. And the Council shall, at its next meeting after such ordinance or resolution shall have been returned to it by the Mayor, proceed to reconsider and vote upon the same. If such ordinance or resolution shall, after reconsideration, be again passed by a four-fifths vote of all the members elected to said Council, it shall be and become to all intents and purposes an ordinance or resolution of the Mayor and Council of Easton in the same manner as if the Mayor had approved it, unless the Council, by an adjournment of a period exceeding ten days, shall prevent its return. In case an ordinance or resolution duly passed by the Council shall embrace different items of appropriation, the Mayor may approve the provisions thereof relating to one or more items of appropriation and disapprove the others, and in such case those he shall
