

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if any person shall take oysters with rakes or tongs, for sale, without having first obtained a license as required by the preceding sections, he shall, upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace for the county wherein the offense has been committed, be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, and stand committed to the county jail until all costs and fines are paid; and the boat or vessel used in such violation shall be forfeited, but shall be released upon the payment of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and costs and expenses, for each and every violation of the preceding sections. All persons taking or catching oysters under the provisions of this Article shall exhibit their authority for so doing when required by any officer of the Oyster Police Force or any other officer of the State.

Approved April 13, 1910.

---

CHAPTER 396.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 1 to 28, inclusive, of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Worcester County," subtitle "Almshouse," and all amendments thereto, and to re-enact Sections 1 to 5 thereof, inclusive, with amendments, so far as to vest complete control and power over the Almshouse property and its management in the County Commissioners of Worcester County, and to vest the title to and control of all real, personal and mixed property now in "The Trustees of the Poor of Worcester County" in the said County Commissioners of Worcester County, and to repeal all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 1 to 28, inclusive, of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, 1888, title "Worcester County," subtitle "Almshouse," and all amendments and supplements thereto, be and the same are hereby repealed, and from Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, re-enacted so as to read as follows:

1. The title to and control of all real, personal and mixed property of every character and description which has heretofore been in the said "The Trustees of the Poor of Worcester County" shall by virtue hereof vest in the County Commissioners of Worcester County, a corporate body, and the said County Commissioners of Worcester County shall hereafter have complete control, supervision and management of all said property and of all matters which have heretofore been