CHAPTER 542.

AN ACT to repeal Section 76 of Chapter 584 of the Acts of Assembly of 1904, title "Public Education," in so far as the same makes an annual appropriation of forty-five hundred dollars for the support of the Normal Department of Washington College, located at Chestertown, Maryland, and in lieu thereof to appropriate the annual sum of forty-five hundred dollars for the aid of Washington College.

Whereas, it has been found that the sum of forty-five hundred dollars, the amount now appropriated for the support of the Normal Department of Washington College, located at Chestertown, Maryland, is insufficient to maintain a normal department, with a curriculum and organization entirely separate from the collegiate department; and that the said normal department has therefore to be supported to a considerable extent out of funds that should properly be devoted to the support of the collegiate department; and,
