

Liber W. J. P., No. 15, folio 149: (a) To the devise by the testator of his dwelling-house and premises on Melvin avenue, in Baltimore county, after the death of his niece, Mary Loretto Muth, or, in case she shall cease to occupy the same as her residence, to the Most Reverend James Gibbons, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore for the time being, and his successors in the Archiepiscopal See of Baltimore, according to the discipline and government of the Roman Catholic Church, a corporation sole (Vide Acts of General Assembly of Maryland, 1832, Chapter 308; 1868, Chapter 268; and 1874, Chapter 298), to be held by said Archbishop and his successors for the use of St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church of Catonsville, Baltimore county, Maryland; (b) To the pastor of St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church at Catonsville, in Baltimore county, Maryland, at the time of the testator's death, the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars; (c) To the Ammendale Normal Institute, now located at Ammendale, Prince George's county, Maryland, the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars; (d) To the Oblate Sisters of Providence of Baltimore City (colored), now located at Chase street and Forrest Place, Baltimore City, the sum of three hundred ($300) dollars; (e) To the Little Sisters of the Poor, now located at Preston and Valley streets, in Baltimore City, the sum of three hundred ($300) dollars; (f) To the Sisters of Bon Secour, now located at Baltimore and Payson streets, in Baltimore City, the sum of three hundred ($300) dollars; (g) To the Redemptorists of Baltimore City, a corporation, the sum of three thousand ($3,000) dollars; (h) To the Woodstock College of Baltimore county, Maryland, being a college for the education of priests, of the Society of Jesus, the sum of three thousand ($3,000); (i) To the congregation of the Mission of St. Vincent de Paul in Germantown, Pennsylvania, being the religious society commonly known as the Lazarists, the sum of three thousand ($3,000) dollars; (j) To the Oblate Fathers of St. Francis de Sales, now located at Wilmington, Delaware, having in charge the school located at Eighth and West streets in said city, or by whatever corporate name the same may be known, the sum of three thousand ($3,000) dollars; (k) To the Most Reverend James Gibbons, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore for the time being, and his successors in the Archiepiscopal See of Baltimore, according to the discipline and government of the Roman Catholic Church, a corporation sole, the sum of three thousand ($3,000) dollars; (l) To the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, now located at Emmitsburg, Maryland, the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars.

32. To the bequest of five hundred ($500) dollars contained in the last will and testament of John H. Yarnall, late of the