

of Baltimore," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Board of directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum, shall consist of at least seven stockholders, and as many more as desired, and shall make by-laws for the bank and manage its affairs; they shall require the president, vice-president and cashier of the bank to respectively execute, with approved corporate or individual surety, a bond (for faithful performance of duty), each in the penalty of $30,000, and to file their said bonds before entering upon their respective duties; provided, however, that one corporation but not less than two individuals may become surety on the bonds aforesaid." The board of directors shall have power to discount notes, and any three directors may at any board meeting (in the absence of a quorum) discount notes; the directors shall regulate all matters concerning deposits of all kinds, and may pay interest thereon, and may, by a majority vote, fill any vacancy which may occur in the Board, but non-residence shall not disqualify a director.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any and all sections and parts of sections of Chapter 222 of the Acts of 1872, entitled "An Act to incorporate the German American Bank of Baltimore," inconsistent with the foregoing, be and the same are, to the extent of such inconsistency, but no further, hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1910.
