CHAPTER 64.

AN ACT to incorporate the Relay Improvement Association of Baltimore County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles W. Galloway, Edward B. Gregg, J. Albert Burton, T. Parkin Scott, Edward E. Herold, Benjamin B. Barber, George Bowen, S. C. Tanner, J. J. Haines, Charles W. S. Banks and Robert C. Clark, all being residents of Baltimore county, State of Maryland, and all other persons who shall hereafter become members of the improvement association hereby incorporated "Relay Improvement Association of Baltimore County," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and sue and be sued in any Court whatsoever.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said corporation hereby formed is a corporation for the promoting by all legitimate and appropriate means the improvements in the village of Relay, in Baltimore county, particularly in the betterment of the roads, sidewalks, sanitary measures, drainage and other improvements of said village, and also the abatement of nuisances. Said corporation is strictly non-political and non-sectarian, having for its ultimate object the well-being of the village of Relay, which, for the purpose of this Act, is considered and deemed to be located in the Thirteenth Election District of Baltimore county, and more particularly described as follows: Beginning at a point on the north limit line of the right of way of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company at the intersection of Viaduct avenue, running thence in a general easterly direction to the westerly boundary line of the Howard
