

(§25) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by both fine and imprisonment, and the informer shall receive one-half of the fine collected.

160r. If any person upon the day of such primary election, or before the canvass of the votes is completed, shall conceal or wilfully break or destroy any ballot box used or intended to be used at such primary election, or shall wilfully or fraudulently conceal, secrete or remove any such ballot box or the book of registry or any of the envelopes, stubs or coupons or other paraphernalia provided for holding such primaries from the custody of the judge or judges of primary election or other proper person in charge thereof, or shall alter, deface, injure or destroy or conceal any ballot which has been deposited in any ballot box at such primary election which has not been counted and canvassed, or any poll list or book of registry used at such primary election, or any report, return, certificate or any evidence in this subtitle required, or any person who shall print or circulate as an official ballot one that is not official and complete, or shall give out or carry away from the custody of the election judges any official envelope for voting otherwise than as provided by this Article, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a felony and shall for each and every such offense be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years.

160s. If any judge or clerk of any such primary election shall without urgent necessity be late at the opening of the polls, or shall absent himself therefrom during the primary election or during the canvass of the ballots or the making up of the returns, or shall receive any vote or proceed with the canvass of ballots, or shall consent thereto, unless a majority of the judges of the primary election in said election district are present and concur, he shall upon conviction thereof be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in jail for not less than ten or more than ninety days, or by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10) or more than two hundred dollars ($200), or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

160t. Whoever, during the hours of any such primary election or canvass of votes or of making returns thereof in any election district, shall bring, take, order or send into, or shall attempt to bring or take or send into any place of such primary election any distilled or spirituous liquors, wine, ale or beer, or shall at any such time and place, drink or partake of such liquor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) or
