

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That a a majority of said Trustees for the time being, when duly assembled at any yearly or other meeting, upon due notice given to the whole body, shall have full power and authority to make fundamental ordinances for the government of said College and instruction of the youth aforesaid, and by their ordinances to appoint such a number of their own body, not less than a majority in number of said trustees, as they may think proper to be a quorum, for transacting all general and necessary business for said College, and making temporary rules for the government of the same, and also by the same fundamental ordinances to delegate the President and Professors such powers and authorities as they may think best for the standing government of the said College and for the execution of the ordinances and rules of the same; provided always that they be not repugnant to the form of government or any laws of this State.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the said corporation shall be able in law to sue and to be sued, plead and be impleaded in any Court or Courts, before any Judge, Justices or Judges within this State and elsewhere, in all and all manner of suits, complaints, pleas, causes, matters and demands of whatsoever kind, nature or form they be, and all and every other matter and thing therein to do, in as full and effectual a manner as any other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate within this State, or elsewhere in the United States of America, in like case, may or can do.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees shall be increased from five to nine Trustees, who shall have the qualifications prescribed in the original certificate of incorporation of said corporation; but said increase is not to become effective until the next annual meeting of the stockholders of said corporation, when nine Trustees shall be elected by the stockholders, and of these nine Trustees three shall be elected to serve for one year; three shall be elected to serve for two years, and three shall be elected for three years; and thereafter at said annual meeting three Trustees shall be annually elected to serve for three years. Whenever any of the Trustees named or chosen shall die, resign, decline serving or be unable to serve, a majority of the Trustees then being shall elect a Trustee to fill the unexpired term of the said Trustee so in any way occasioning said vacancy.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said corporation shall have the power to take and hold by donation, gift, grant, devise or bequest or otherwise any property, real, personal or mixed, for the purpose of said corporation; and to receive endowments; and to