

thirds of the outstanding stock at any regular or called stockholders' meeting, and the said directors, together with the president and vice-president of the said corporation, shall have power to enact and adopt such rules, regulations and by-laws for the government and management of the affairs of the said corporation as they shall deem advantageous to the interests thereof.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That said corporation be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to receive money on deposit subject to check or otherwise; to allow interest on deposit when and as it may see fit; to collect rents, ground rents, interest on mortgages, dividends and incomes of all kinds upon such terms as it may arrange; to purchase and hold, bargain and sell, assign, mortgage and generally deal in any and all kinds of liquidated choses in action, checks, notes, bills or exchange, certificate or deposit, warehouse receipts, stocks, bonds, mortgages of real and personal property, and any and every kind of evidence of debt; to advance money on the security thereof by securing and holding the same, or accepting or lending money on mortgages thereon; to borrow and loan money, and to discount and rediscount notes, in accordance with bank usages, taking such security therefor, either real or personal, as the board of directors of said corporation, or their duly constituted agents, may deem sufficient; and generally to deal in every and all description of liquidated choses in action, securities, mortgages, bonds, stocks, certificates of deposit, evidences of indebtedness, loans or bonds of the United States, or of any county, city, municipality or public authority, incorporated company or individuals.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That any and every court into which money may be paid or deposited by agreement of parties, order, judgment or decree of such court, may order and direct the same to be deposited with the said corporation, and any individual or administrator, guardian, committee, receiver, assignee, trustee, State, county or municipal government or corporation or public officer, or any person or persons acting for others, having the custody of any bonds, stocks, securities, moneys or values, shall be authorized to deposit the same for safekeeping with the said corporation.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That said corporation may receive upon storage, deposit or otherwise, merchandise, specie, plate, bullion, stocks, promissory notes, certificates and evidences of debt, contracts and all other personal property, and advance money thereupon on such terms as may be established or approved by said corporation; that in all cases in which public officers or municipal or private corporations are author-