

bond, contract, agreement, pledge or other security made or given for that purpose.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That said corporation shall have the power to insure any person, firm or corporation against any and all loss, damage or liability arising from or occasioned by or through any negligence, wrongful act or accident whatsoever, or by theft, larceny, robbery or burglary, also against any damage to plate glass and against any loss of or damage to any personal property whatsoever, whether the same be in the possession of the person or firm or corporation insured, or elsewhere, and whether said loss or damage be due to accident, negligence or any other cause, except that nothing herein contained shall authorize the Chesapeake Guaranty Company to insure against loss by fire.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That said company be and it is hereby authorized and empowered, either solely or jointly, with one or more other sureties, to insure and become surety for the fidelity of persons holding places of trust or responsibility, public or private, in, to or under the United States Government, or any colony, province or territory thereof; and in, to or under any foreign country or government, or any colony, province, department, city or country thereof; and to become surety, either solely or jointly, with one or more securities, for the faithful performance of any trust, office, duty or contract to be discharged or performed in any of the countries or within any of the jurisdictions aforesaid, and in all such cases, including those where, by law, orders, decree, rule or regulation, one or more sureties are required on any bond, recognizance or stipulation, or for the faithful performance of any trust, office, duty or contract, the powers of said company shall embrace authority to execute, either solely or jointly, with one or more other securities, any bond, recognizance, stipulation or contract having relation thereto; provided, that whenever the surety to be given by any trustee, guardian or other person shall be under the jurisdiction of any court of this State the approval of said court shall first be obtained.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That said company be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to sign, make and execute bail bonds and recognizances, and generally to act as surety for the faithful appearance and surrender of individuals as provided by any process of law or order of court of any State of the United States, or of the United States Government, or of any territory or dependency thereof, or of any branch or part of any foreign country, State or government.