

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the stock of said corporation shall be deemed personal and shall be liable for its debts, and no stockholder shall be liable therefor, and the president and directors shall have power to call for the payment of subscriptions to said capital stock as they may deem necessary, and on and after thirty days thereafter the same shall be due and payable, and any stock on which said call has been demanded and not paid, may, at the will of said president and directors, be forfeited to said corporation and sold for its benefit, and the said president and directors may issue stock for or in payment of material, work or services rendered and properly acquired, in such amount or amounts as said president and directors may value or deem such services and property worth, advantageous or beneficial to said corporation.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That said corporation is authorized and empowered to acquire by condemnation, any right, franchise or property necessary to carry out the purpose of said corporation when said corporation can not agree with the owner or owners thereof, or such owner or owners is or are under legal disability or out of the county where the right, franchise or property lies; said condemnation to be in the manner provided in Article 23 of the Public General Laws of the State of Maryland.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1910.

CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT to change the name of "The Federated Charities of Baltimore, Incorporated," confer additional powers on the said corporation and on its board of managers, and to amend its organic law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the name of "The Federated Charities of Baltimore, Incorporated," a corporation duly formed by the union or consolidation of the Baltimore Association for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor and the Charity Organization Society of Baltimore City under the General Laws of this State and evidenced by a certificate of such union or consolidation dated January 11, 1910, and duly executed, acknowledged and recorded as required by law, be and the said name is hereby changed to "The Federated Charities of Baltimore."

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation formed as aforesaid is and shall be entitled to all the property and assets which belonged to the said former separate corpora-