

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the board of directors of said company shall have the right, without the interference of local or general laws, to offer inducements to foreign and American aviators for trials of speed and endurance, and award such premiums and make such regulations in all races and contests as may in their discretion and judgment be deemed wise and good for the encouragement of the science of aviation.

SEC. 7. Be it enacted, That the grounds of said company shall be located at or near College Park, Prince George's County, Maryland, and the sale of liquor or intoxicating drinks or beverages on said grounds or at any exhibition, contest or other amusement provided for in this Act or held by said company is hereby expressly prohibited, all local or general laws heretofore or hereafter to be passed to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of said company shall be two hundred thousand dollars, and shall consist of two thousand shares of stock of the par value of one hundred dollars each, with the right at any or all times to increase the same in the manner now provided in the general corporation laws of the State; and the above named incorporators, or a majority of them, shall have the power to open books for subscription to said stock at such time and place as may be deemed expedient; and when ten of said shares have been subscribed to and twenty-five per cent. of the par value thereof has been paid in cash, the said incorporators, or their successors and assigns, shall thereupon have and exercise, in the name and behalf of said company, all the rights, powers and privileges granted to the company by this Act.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of preserving order in and around the grounds of said corporation, the Board of County Commissioners of Prince George's County may appoint one or more constables, and shall issue to said persons a commission for such period as the said board shall deem proper; that said constable or constables shall have the same power or powers and shall qualify in such a manner as the regular constables are now required to do before said commissioners; and the compensation of every constable appointed by the authority of this Act shall be paid by said corporation, and such officers shall not be entitled to receive any public compensation.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That all public local laws inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed in so far as they might apply to the aforesaid The American Aero Exhibition Company, of College Park, Maryland.
