

any portion of a substance unfit for food, whether manufactured or not, or any animal or vegetable substance produced, stored, transferred or kept in a condition which would render the article diseased, contaminated or unwholesome, or if it is the product of a diseased animal or one that has died otherwise than by slaughter, or that has been fed upon the offal from a slaughter-house, or if it is the milk from an animal fed upon substances unfit for food for dairy animals, or from an animal kept and milked in a filthy or contaminated stable, or in surroundings that would render the milk contaminated.

In the case of water :

First. If manufactured for sale, produced for sale, exposed for sale or advertised for sale, as a spring, well or mineral water, or if served in a public place as a spring, well or mineral water, it be found upon analysis to differ in composition or constituents from the composition or constituents of the water taken from the spring, well or other original source, or alleged original source, from which such water is obtained or alleged to be obtained, unless the changes therein or additions thereto be plainly indicated upon the label; provided, that in the case of waters manufactured to resemble natural mineral waters, such waters must be labeled in a conspicuous manner "Artificial"; and provided further, that when such waters are sold or served as mineral waters, they must contain one or more mineral constituents in sufficient quantities to have a therapeutic effect from these constituents when a reasonable quantity of the water is consumed.

Second. If when advertised and sold as a pure drinking water, spring, well or mineral water, it shows contamination.

SEC. 140D. That the term misbranded, as used herein, shall apply to all drugs or articles of food or articles which enter into the composition of food the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein, which shall be false or misleading in any particular, and to any food or drug product which is falsely branded as to the State, Territory, place or country in which it is manufactured or produced; that for the purpose of this Act an article shall also be deemed to be misbranded,

In case of drugs :

First. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the name of another article.

Second. If the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package.
