

Naval Brigade, one dollar and twenty-five cents, except the chief and petty officers, who shall be paid as follows: Chief petty officers, two dollars and twenty-five cents; first-class petty officers, two dollars; second-class petty officers, one dollar and seventy-five cents, and third-class petty officers, one dollar and fifty cents. And, in addition to said pay, each enlisted man shall receive rations as prescribed by the regulations of the United States Army and United States Navy, respectively, or commutation thereof at a rate not exceeding forty cents per day; each enlisted man who has served a full term of enlistment and who re-enlists within thirty days of the expiration of this previous enlistment, shall receive an increase of ten per cent. of the pay of his grade during this enlistment, and for each full term of enlistment served thereafter an increase of ten per cent. will be granted until forty per cent. of the pay of his grade is reached.

78. All enlisted men who qualify in accordance with the requirements of the course prescribed by order of the Governor and Commander-in-Chief in small arms practice, shall be entitled to the following increases in the pay of his grade during the year succeeding the season of said qualifications and beginning on January 1st following; and, provided further, that said enlisted man, qualified as aforesaid, shall be present at the annual inspection of his organization next succeeding said qualification: Experts, twenty per cent.; sharpshooters, fifteen per cent., and marksmen, ten per cent.

86. Every member of the active militia shall be exempt from jury duty, provided he shall present the certificate of his immediate commanding officer to the effect that he has performed the duties required of him for the year immediately preceding the summons to act as juryman, and every such member who shall have received a full and honorable discharge shall be exempt for the three years next succeeding his discharge from all jury duty. Every regiment or separate organization of the National Guard of this State may receive and have as many honorary members as it has active and uniformed members, on payment in advance by each person desiring to become such honorary member, of not less than ten dollars per annum, which money shall be received by the commanding officer of the regiment or separate organization, and be by him applied to a special fund of such organization and expended by the commanding officer for the best interests of his organization, and the commanding officer of every regiment and separate organization shall, on or before the first day of June and December in each and every year, render to the Adjutant-General an account of the money so received and expended by him, and every such honorary member shall be entitled to receive a certificate