

or the citizens of Queen Anne's and Talbot counties from using the waters of the Wye river and the mouth thereof in common, or the citizens of Dorchester and Talbot counties from using the waters of the Choptank river in common; provided, however, that the County Commissioners shall be authorized to give special permission to any woman who has no visible means of support to take and catch oysters without license.

2. Each and every license issued in conformity to the provisions of Section 1 of this Article shall state the name, color, age and residence of the person to whom the license is to be granted; the number thereof and the county in which the same is to be used, and every applicant for such license shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court when such license may be granted, and before the issuing and delivery of the same, three and one-half dollars, the Clerk to receive twenty-five cents for each and every such license as a fee for issuing the same, including administering the oath when required. Two-thirds of the amount received for such license shall be paid by the Clerk to the School Commissioners for the use of the public schools in the respective counties where such licenses are issued, and of this amount the portion received from white tongers to go to the white schools, and the portion received from the colored tongers to go to the colored schools, and the remaining one-third to be paid over by the Clerk to the Comptroller of the State Treasury, to be credited to the oyster fund. And one-third of the amount received from any tonging license in any county in this State shall be paid by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county when received to the Comptroller of the Treasury, to be credited to the oyster fund, any provision of any public local law or public general law to the contrary notwithstanding.

18. The fines accruing under any of the provisions of this Article shall be paid by the Sheriff, constable or officers of the State Fishery Force collecting the same within ten days to the Comptroller of the State Treasury, or to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the particular county where such fine may accrue, or to the Clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore, if such fine shall accrue in said city, and it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney for the several counties and for the City of Baltimore to keep an account of said fines imposed and to make a monthly report thereof to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for their respective counties, or to said Clerk of the Criminal Court, as the case may be, and to see that said fines are duly collected and paid over, as aforesaid, and the surplus, after paying all costs for prosecution in such cases, shall be paid to the State Comptroller for the use of the oyster fund,
