

of the world, and has been recognized by a number of International Congresses; and

Whereas, This language is meeting the long-felt need for a simplified yet superior medium of communication between nations, not supplanting national tongues, but furnishing a secondary language for all; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 43 of Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Public Education," sub-title "Schools," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

43. In every district school there shall be taught orthography, reading, writing, subjects for language training, English grammar, geography, arithmetic, history of the United States, good behavior, the Constitution of the United States, Constitution and history of Maryland, vocal music, drawing, physiology, laws of health and domestic economy, civil government, and the elements of agricultural science and the International language known as Esperanto may, in the discretion of the State Board of Education, be added to the branches required to be taught in the State Normal Schools and in the high schools of the various counties of the State.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1910.

CHAPTER 147.

AN ACT to add one new section to Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Public Education," sub-title "County Examiner," to come after Section 72 of said Article and to be known as Section 72A, and designed to provide for the appointment of Grade Supervisors for the public schools of Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That one new section be added to Article 77 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Public Education," sub-title "County Examiners"; said section to come after Section 72 of said Article, and to be known as Section 72A, so as to read as follows:

72A. The Board of County School Commissioners of any county may, in their discretion, appoint a Grade Supervisor; provided that in counties where the number of teachers shall exceed 150, one additional supervisor may be appointed; and for every additional 100 teachers, one additional supervisor