SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That the sum of forty-five hundred dollars be annually appropriated to Washington College, payable to said college, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, in quarterly instalments, on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year. In consideration of which appropriation the Visitors and Governors of said college shall educate, free of charge for board, room rent, tuition and text-books, one male student from each Senatorial district of the Western Shore, who shall be appointed by the School Commissioners in each said Senatorial district, by and with the advice and consent of the Senator in said district, after a competitive examination; provided, that the appointment shall not be held by the same student for more than four years, and that each student receiving such appointment shall give his bond for such amount and with such security as may be approved by the President of said college, that he will teach school within the State of Maryland for not less than two years after leaving college; and

Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13, 1910.

CHAPTER 505.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 95-115, Article 77, of the Code of Public General Laws of 1904.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 95-115 of the Code of Public General Laws of 1904, title "Public Education," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

SEC. 95. The Governor shall biennially appoint four persons, at least two of whom shall be women, who, with the State Librarian, the Superintendent of Public Instructions and the Librarian of the Enoch Pratt Free Library, shall constitute the Maryland Public Library Commission.

SEC. 96. Said Commission shall annually elect from their own number a president and a secretary, who, with the other members of the Commission, shall serve without pay, but the necessary traveling expenses of the commissioners in attending upon the meetings of the Commission or its business away from their homes, may be paid out of the appropriation for the Commission. The Secretary shall also act as treasurer of the
