

Commission and shall give bond with approved security for the the proper performance of his duties.

SEC. 97. Said Commission shall give advice and counsel to all public libraries and public school libraries in the State and to all persons proposing to establish them, as to the best means of their establishment and maintenance, the selection of books, cataloguing and other details of management. Said Commission shall annually report to the Governor in the month of November, a full and complete account of its doings and of its receipts and expenditures.

SEC. 98. Said Commission shall organize and conduct traveling libraries throughout the State, shall formulate such reasonable regulations for the use and care of the books of such traveling libraries as they may deem proper; and shall from time to time send out and distribute such books throughout the State, and at suitable intervals change such distributions so as to secure the greatest advantage.

SEC. 99. The State Treasurer shall annually on the first day of October pay to the treasurer of the Commission the sum of fifteen hundred dollars for the use of the Commission.

SEC. 100. Said Commission, upon application of the library directors of a county, municipality or election district which has complied with the provisions of this law relative to the establishment of such library may expend not more than one hundred dollars for books, to be selected and purchased by said Commission and delivered to said directors for the purpose of establishing a free public library.

SEC. 101. The Boards of County Commissioners shall have power to establish and maintain central free public libraries at all the county seats of their respective counties, with branches in such places within the limits of said counties as the demand of the people of the vicinity may justify, so as to give them convenient access to the free libraries and reading rooms, and the legislative authority of any incorporated municipality shall have power to establish public libraries in like manner for said municipality.

SEC. 102. The Board of County Commissioners of any county in the State, for the establishment and maintenance of said free public libraries and reading rooms in their respective counties, may levy an annual tax not exceeding five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of taxable property; such tax to be levied and collected in like manner as other general taxes of said county, and when collected to be known as the public library fund.