

SEC. 103. In case a majority of the voters in any election district shall petition the Board of County Commissioners to establish a public library in said district, the said Board shall establish and control such public library in the same manner as the legislative authority of an incorporated municipality may establish and control a library under this Act, and said Board of County Commissioners may levy a tax on the election district for the said library in like manner as is done for the library of an incorporated municipality and to the same amount, and said election district library shall be managed in the same manner as the library of an incorporated municipality.

SEC. 104. The legislative authority of any municipality may levy a tax for public library purposes upon the assessed valuation of the taxable property within said municipality, not exceeding seven cents of each one hundred dollars, to be collected in like manner as the other taxes of said municipality. The money so collected by the governing boards of the incorporated municipalities shall be paid over to the trustees or board of directors, to be appointed as hereinafter provided, and shall be expended by them as in their judgment they may deem best.

SEC. 105. Whenever any Board of County Commissioners or legislative authority of an incorporated municipality shall have determined to establish and maintain public libraries and reading rooms under this Act, such Board of County Commissioners or legislative authority of an incorporated municipality, shall appoint for such county, election district or incorporated municipality, a board of nine directors, who shall be chosen at large with reference to their fitness for such office; said directors shall hold office, one-third for two years, one-third for four years, and one-third for six years, from first of January following their appointment and until their successors are chosen. At their first regular meeting they shall cast lots for the their respective terms, and biennially thereafter the Board of County Commissioners or legislative authority of the municipality shall appoint as before three directors to take the place of the retiring directors, who shall hold office for six years and until their successors are appointed. The Board of County Commissioners or legislative authority of the municipality may remove any directors for inefficiency, misconduct or neglect of duty.

SEC. 106. Vacancies in the said board of directors occasioned by removal, resignation or otherwise, shall be reported to the Board of County Commissioners or legislative author-
