SEC. 107. Said directors shall, immediately after their appointment, meet at the call of the County Commissioners or legislative authority of the municipality, and organize by the election of a president and vice-president from their own number, and a person or persons to act as secretary and treasurer. The treasurer so elected shall give bond for the faithful performance of his trust in such sum as said library board shall determine; the said bond to be approved by the said library board, and the expense thereof paid out of the library fund. Directors shall receive no compensation. They shall make and adopt by-laws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Act, for their own guidance and for the government of the libraries and reading rooms. They shall have exclusive control of the expenditures of all moneys collected to the credit of the library fund under this Act, but such expenditures and all contracts made by them shall not exceed the appropriations provided and made under Section 3 and 4 of this Act. They shall also have control of the construction of any library building, and of the supervision, care and custody of the library grounds, rooms or buildings constructed or set apart for that purpose; and they shall have power to purchase or lease grounds, to occupy, lease or erect an appropriate building or buildings for the use of said library, to appoint a suitable librarian and assistants, to fix the compensation of such appointees, and to remove them if unsatisfactory, and shall in general carry out the spirit and intent of this Act in establishing and maintaining public libraries and reading rooms.

SEC. 108. All moneys collected for such libraries and reading rooms by the County Commissioners or governing boards of incorporated municipalities as hereinabove provided, shall be deposited in the treasury of said county or of the said municipality, respectively, to the credit of the library fund, and shall be kept separate and apart from other moneys of such county or municipality, and paid over to the treasurer of the library board upon the demand of the board.

SEC. 109. Every library and reading room established under this Act shall be forever free to the use of the inhabitants of the county, election district or municipality where it is located; subject, however, to such reasonable rules and regulations as the library board may adopt, and said board may exclude from the use of said libraries and reading rooms any and all persons who shall wilfully violate such rules, and may extend the privilege of said library to persons living outside of
