

the county or municipality, upon such terms and conditions as said board may from time to time by its regulations prescribe.

SEC. 110. Every person who shall steal or unlawfully take or detain, or who shall mutilate, injure or disfigure by writing, marking, cutting, tearing or otherwise, any book, map, picture, engraving, manuscript or other property of any public library or circulating library, or library belonging to the State of Maryland, or to any municipality or public body or incorporated institution, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, said fine to be used for the benefit of the library, or be imprisoned for not more than three months, or, in the discretion of the Court, may be both fined and imprisoned as aforesaid.

SEC. 111. Each library board established under this Act shall make an annual report to the County Commissioners or legislative authority of the municipality, or before the twentieth day of January, stating the condition of their trust on the first day of January in that year, the various sums of money received from the library fund and from other sources, and how such moneys have been expended and for what purposes, the number of books and periodicals on hand, the number added by purchase, gift or otherwise during the year, the number lost or missing, the number of books loaned out, and the general character and kind of such books, with such other statistics and information and suggestions as they may deem of general interest. All such portion of said report as relates to the receipts and expenditures of money shall be subject to audit of the County Commissioners or legislative authority of the municipality. A copy of said report shall be sent annually to the Maryland Public Library Commission.

SEC. 112. The said Library Board may receive, hold and possess, or sell and dispose of all such gifts, donations, devises, bequests and legacies as they may be made to the County Commissioners, to the municipality, or to the Library Board, for the purpose of establishing, increasing or improving such public library. In such cases the Library Board shall act as trustees, and have control of such gifts, donations, devises, bequests and legacies, and may apply the proceeds, interests, rents and profits accruing therefrom in such manner as will best promote the prosperity and utility of such library; provided, such application be according to the terms of the gifts, donations, devises, bequests and legacies.

SEC. 113. Every public library established under this law shall receive from the State a copy of the laws, journals and
